

Graduate School Center for Educational Development

- Core Members
- Program Coordinator

Advice/Critiques

Off-campus experts

Setting of Academic and Professional Goals

Administration of Educational Resources

Administration of Student Records and Evaluations

Development of Coursework

Curriculum Designing

Effective Administration of Graduate School Education

Quality Assurance of Graduate School Education

Research Objectives of Two Courses of Study

Research in structural and functional evaluation and clinical approaches to masticatory and swallowing disorders

Research in health, diseases and reconstruction of oral-craniofacial tissues for maintaining and restoring oral functions

Dental tissue engineering & regeneration and exploratory research leading to innovative dental medicines for improvement of QOL

Tracking Coursework Record through Student Portfolios (personal records)

[Development of Coursework] Training in Basic Academic Abilities and Skills

[Training in Developmental Abilities] Enhancement of Abilities to Apply Professional Knowledge Supported by Basic Knowledge

D1 D2 D3 D4

To Encourage Students with Mind-sets as an Educator and Researcher Through TA and RA Experience

In-house and Off-campus Researchers and Industry Personnel

Domestic/Overseas Research and Medical Institutes University of Michigan, Scripps Research Institute, etc.

Upskilling Program (Management/Medical Ethics/Leadership Coaching)

Domestic and Overseas External Support Programs

Doctoral Candidate

Attainment of Candidacy for Submission of Graduate Thesis by Point-based System

Preliminary Open Oral Defense

Training of Researchers meeting Global Standards

Dental Science Educator/ Researchers

Leader in Advanced Dentistry

Training of Highly-skilled, Specialized Medical Professionals with Researcher Mindsets

Advising Dentists Board Certified Dentists (Board Certification) General Practitioners